

Women into Construction

Thursday 27 June 2013, 10am-2pm

L&Q, in partnership with Women into Construction, will be running a one-day event to highlight career opportunities for women in the construction industry.

Aimed at all women aged 18 and over, the day will help you:

- Explore the construction sector as a possible career option
- Find out about related courses at your local colleges
- Discover what help is available when you have started training
- Get help from Women into Construction to get that first work placement or job

Women into Construction will be giving presentations at 10.30am and 1pm. Experts on the subject, they run an ongoing project designed to get women more involved in all areas of the construction industry.

Venue: Lambeth Accord, 336 Brixton Rd, London SW9 7AA

To book a place, please text Yes to WIC event to Maud on 07500 101659 or Makeda on 07738 714252, letting us know which presentation you wish to attend, at 10.30am or 1pm.
